

'till all your homework's done
But when the weekend's come
You know just where we'll be. Yeah.
Kissin' in the back row of the movies on a Saturday night with you
Holding hands together, you and I
Holding hands together, oh yeah
Smoochin' in the back row of the movies on a Saturday night with you
We could stay forever, you and I
We could stay forever, you and I
Huggin' and a-kissin' in the back row of the movies.
(I said) Huggin' and a-kissin' in the back row of the movies.
(We'll be) huggin' and a-kissin' in the back row of the movies.

(At the end of the number, TOM holds MAGGIE)

Company: Shhh.
Tom: (Dropping MAGGIE onto the floor) Sorry!

SCENE 4 BACK INSIDE THE 'DISCO INFERNO', JULY 1976

Jack: Heaven knows how they ever got together after that.
Duke: But, you and Jane always made a great couple. And you'd be willing to throw all that away on a dream? Jack. It's all about taking control of your destiny; not leaving it to chance but making sure you know exactly what you're doing, who to and who for. The Beatles. Look at them. Once the greatest band that ever lived... they split and then what happened? John went to bed, Paul did a spot of farming, George went off to save Bangladesh and Ringo, bless him, just sat on a platform and waited for Thomas The Tank engine to pull in.

(SFX. Thunder)

Duke: Sounds like we're in for a nasty spell. I'll leave you to lock up. Remember what we've talked about tonight. Jack! As I've said before, there's nothing wrong with following a dream, son, just as long as you know what you could be letting yourself in for. And make sure this place is spotless before you leave. (Exits)

(JACK walks over to the DJ booth and sticks on a record. Grabbing a broom he half-heartedly sweeps the floor putting the chairs up on the tables and taking empty bottles and glasses over the bar. SFX. Thunder. At that moment, LADY MARMALADE enters. LADY MARMALADE is an attractive, well-spoken woman in her early 30's. She is soaked from the rain)

Lady: Excuse me.
Jack: Oh, look... I'm sorry but the bar's closed.
